Roles and Responsibilities

Please note that if you are unable to meet the required learning outcomes or skill proficiency during the training period, the company reserves the right to extend your training duration until the expected standards are achieved.

Performance-Based Evaluation

Your initial three-week training will cover onboarding, digital marketing fundamentals, and tool familiarization. Upon successful completion of training, your formal internship phase will commence. Your performance will be assessed periodically, and based on your progress and commitment, you may become eligible for a performance-based stipend and additional project responsibilities. The detailed evaluation structure will be communicated during onboarding.

We believe this internship will offer a strong foundation for your career in software development and we are committed to supporting your growth every step of the way.
